Being organised

Being organised has many benefits – check the statements which are important for you:

- helps you to PRIORITISE helps you to FOCUS improves TIME MANAGEMENT
- reduces STRESS increases PRODUCTIVITY increases CONFIDENCE
- increases EFFICIENCY gives a better BALANCE between work and play

How organised are you?

✓ Tick the statements that apply to you.

B I get overwhelmed by how much work I have and avoid starting large tasks.

A I get my homework done on time.

A I write down homework and the deadlines in one place, such as a planner.

A I do my homework the day I get it.

B I leave my homework until the last minute.

A I always rush my work.

B I often forget what homework I have.

B I break down large tasks into smaller tasks and tick these off when I complete them.

B I never know where everything I need is, such as my notes, books, pens, highlighter pens, paper and a ruler.

A I never need to rush my work.

B I hand my homework in late.

A I always know where everything I need is, such as my notes, books, pens, highlighter pens, paper and a ruler.

Count the number of A statements you ticked and the number of B statements you ticked. Read the appropriate advice below. If you ticked an equal number of each, read both sets of advice.

Mostly A: You are a well-organised person who has developed strategies that work for you.

Be careful if you agreed with 'I do my homework the day I get it' as this might not be the most efficient strategy; you need to prioritise homework according to deadline and how long it will take, and also make sure you allow time for fun and relaxation. See the table on the next page for more ideas of how to be organised.

Mostly B: You could use some support in being more organised in order to make life easier for yourself. Try some of the suggested methods for being organised in the table on the next page, then return to the activity above at a later date to see if you score differently.

If you do some work each day, rather than leaving it all to the last minute, you will feel more in control.
